Paul Bloxham

Chief Economist for Australia, New Zealand
and Global Commodities,
HSBC

11:30AM | GUEST SPEAKER - PAUL BLOXHAM

Paul Bloxham is chief spokesperson for HSBC on forecasts and trends for the Australian and New Zealand economies and their interaction with global financial markets and international economies. He is a key spokesperson on HSBC's unique view on global commodity markets.

Paul is a regular commentator on local and international business television and frequent contributor of opinion editorials to Australian newspapers. He is also a member of the Australian National University's Shadow Reserve Bank Board and an Adjunct Professor at Curtin University.

Prior to joining HSBC in 2010, Paul spent 12 years as an economist with the Reserve Bank of Australia. Paul holds a Master's degree in public financial policy from the London School of Economics.

ECONOMIC UPDATE AND GLOBAL OUTLOOK FOR 2022 / 2023

Paul will look at the global and Australian economic landscapes as we deal with growing inflation and rapid interest rate increases, with more changes on the way in the coming months.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Where will the interest rate, inflation and cost of living be in 12 months
